

Carnival – The Fun Ones

Specs

Male AND Female. Mid 20s to Mid 40s. Looking for a fun, self-aware, relatable voice with a dry/subtle sense of humor. Our VO is a natural storyteller and is narrating the on-camera action with tongue-in-cheek, observational delivery. Their comedy comes off effortlessly and their wit is easy and never forced or trying too hard. The read should have some energy but not be pushed. It should feel totally in the moment with random dips and peaks of excitement, as they remember another tidbit, or see something else happening in the spot. The delivery should feel spontaneous, as if it's being riffed or ad-libbed.

In everyday life, you're surrounded by serious people.

So when you go on vacation,
chose to be around some fun ones.

You know, people who were just born fun.

People like your cool aunt Debbie.
Or your crazy friend Jeff.

Or your wife's friends that you just love hanging out with.
She thinks they're fun.

The fun ones don't fit with everybody.
Because they're not like anybody.

They, um, dance.
Not really well.
But they're always the first ones out there.

They're a little goofy,
Come on, you know that's funny.

And they'll try anything at least once.
Or maybe twice,

They might look shy, but give 'em a microphone...And who knows what'll happen.

Hey are you gonna eat that whole thing... Okay!

Bottom line is, when they're being their fun selves, we're all more our fun selves.

So if you're a fun one,
know a fun one,
or wanna be around fun ones.
Choose a vacation as fun as you.
Carnival. Choose fun.
