

Chief Gwendolyn Valentine

(Stern) "Agent Roger and Agent Fredrick, you are overdue. I expect a status report within the next 24 hours or you both will be exempt from this mission and returned to headquarters. This is your final warning. (Softens) I'm counting on you both."

"The Supreme Council has made its decision...I'm afraid there's nothing I can do. I understand your frustration, however you need to think about what's right for his timeline. This is for the greater good."

(Amused) "I enjoy your enthusiasm, but if the three of you could compose yourselves for a moment, I haven't finished."
