

Miho Ritsuko

Audition Sides:

1: (Triumphantly)

You are speaking to the next leading mind in science! Einstein? Newton? Foucault? All pale in comparison to the brain of Miho Ritsuko!

2: (Curious, writing down observations)

Hmm, I see, these are certainly real cards. Very interesting.

3: (Dismissive)

That's not smoke, it's just steam! Steam from the steam engine? So what if it's tar-colored?

4: (Revealing her invention)

A duel can be decided by what cards you draw, and I would like to not lose that way. Ergo, behold! The-automatic-card-shuffler-9000!

5: (Summoning her best card)

Now watch, people of the gallery, as a mind full of potential grows, and grows, until it surpasses even mine! Come forth! Volternative Genius Conduit!
